STONINGTON GARDEN CLUB ANNOUNCES FIELDS OF GOLD EVENT

STONINGTON, CONN. (March 25, 2025) – The Stonington Garden Club (SGC) will present “Fields of Gold” on Friday, April 11, at Historic Stonington’s Captain Nathaniel Palmer House, 40 Palmer Street, Stonington. Open to the public from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm, “Fields of Gold” is a Garden Club of America (GCA) club flower show presented by Stonington Garden Club members to celebrate the joyful harbinger of spring, the daffodil. The show will include creative entries in floral design, horticulture, and photography.

Noted gardener Ian Cooke will give a historical presentation at 2:00 pm, “The Spring Fever of the Daffodil,” which is open to all. Visitors are invited to stroll through the cove side meadow next to the Palmer House, where the Stonington Garden Club planted more than 3,000 daffodils in 2024.

This event is free and open to the public.

About the Stonington Garden Club

Established in 1926, the Stonington Garden Club is an all-volunteer, non-profit organization whose purpose is to educate and encourage interest in the environment and conservation, support community projects, and stimulate the knowledge and love of gardening. The club has partnered with community leaders for nearly a century to positively impact the town and residents with lasting contributions through education, beautification, and environmental programs.
